

Insurance and shipping litigation lawyer – 1-5 years PQE

Basic salary range £64,000 - £95,000

Tatham Macinnes LLP are recruiting for a 1-5 year qualified assistant solicitor to work in a dynamic, growing city law firm undertaking high-level work in a supportive and collaborative environment.

Experience of insurance (marine and non-marine), shipping and/or shipbuilding an advantage, but not essential. Those with general commercial litigation experience will be considered – ultimately, we are looking for high quality, motivated and driven individuals.

Tatham Macinnes can offer exceptional career progression opportunities and the ability to become an integral part of business development. At Tatham Macinnes, we are very much looking for the next partners, and we actively encourage our people to become involved in all aspects of the firm. The successful candidate will be provided with the opportunity to develop a diverse and varied practice.

Benefits/Salary

We always aim to pay above market rates for the best performers. Depending on level of qualification and experience, the basic salary is between £64,000 and £95,000 (dependent of experience) with benefits including a discretionary bonus, pension and healthcare.
